FINE ARTS DAY CELEBRATION

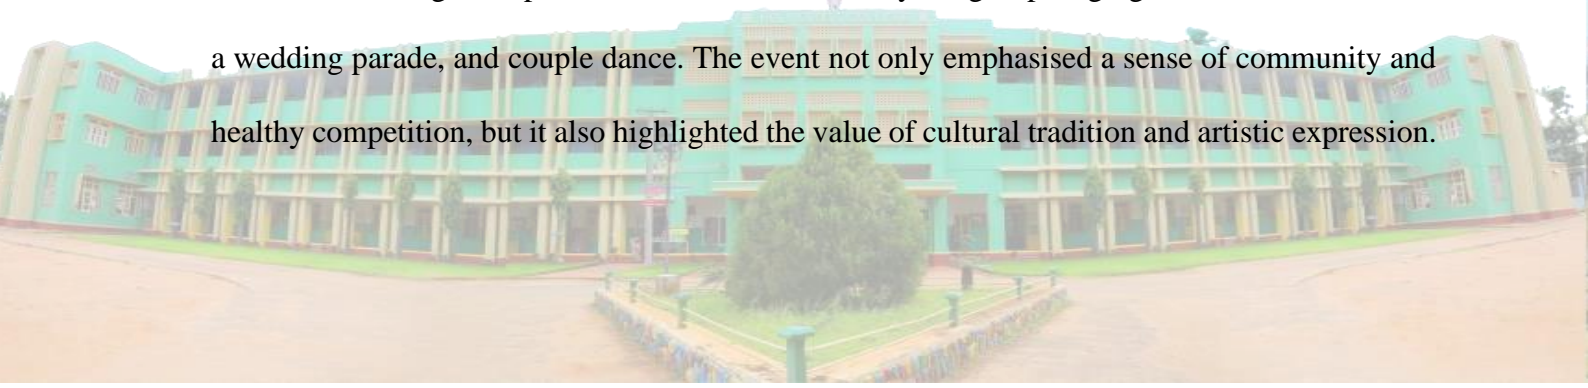

The Fine Arts Day celebration was conducted on 11-07-2019, 12-07-2019, and 20-12-2019. The Fine Arts Committee meticulously organised a series of on-stage and off-stage programmes, giving students a dynamic platform to demonstrate their unique abilities. The festival emphasised the college's priority on cultural activities, as well as offering a perfect atmosphere for students to discover, learn, and appreciate the vast variety of fine arts.

On 11-07-2019 offstage programmes such as pot painting, watercolor painting, producing riches from waste, fabric painting, paper bag making, embroidery, and jewelry making took place in various venues. These activities gave students a platform to release their imaginations, acting as a spark that lit their creative spirits. This encouraged participants to explore their creative potential, resulting in a lively exhibition of artistic expression throughout the event.

On 12-07-2019 offstage programmes were Glass painting, Doll making, Card making, Canvas painting, Collage, Artificial bouquet making, and Soap carving. Students got an opportunity to explore and value their creativity. The varied choice of activities guaranteed that every student had an outlet for their imagination, instilling a strong respect for the fine arts.

On 20-12-2019, before the commencement of the onstage competitions, Fine Arts Day began with a series of addresses. Dr. Jeni Padua, the Fine Arts Coordinator, delivered the welcome address, followed by the presidential address from Dr. Sr. Anne Perpet Sophy, the Principal. Dr. Sr. Leema Rose, the Vice-Principal, gave the felicitation, and the inauguration of the Fine Arts was given by Dr. Sr. Geradin Jayam. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Sathya. The competitions commenced at 9:40 a.m. in the Multipurpose Hall.

The onstage competitions included Bharatanatyam, group singing, folk dance, footnotes, a wedding parade, and couple dance. The event not only emphasised a sense of community and healthy competition, but it also highlighted the value of cultural tradition and artistic expression.

Faculty and students alike praised the dedication and effort put into each performance. The diverse range of competitions ensured that there was something for everyone, reflecting the inclusive spirit of the Fine Arts Day celebration. Overall, the day was a resounding success, leaving a lasting effect on everyone who attended.
